Honoring exceptional individuals who have gone above and beyond for Jewish Family Service and the greater Lehigh Valley Jewish community

In appreciation of this year's
Cheers for Volunteers
honorees and all community
volunteers

Thanks for all you do,
Bonnie Hammel

A MESSAGE FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

Dear Jewish Family Service Friends,

The Talmud says, “The highest form of wisdom is kindness.” Your support of Cheers for Volunteers, this year’s JFS fundraiser, is a reflection of your wisdom, generosity and kindness. Not only do you care about the volunteers who are being honored today, but you recognize that our Jewish Family of the Lehigh Valley is a valuable resource that provides services for those who are experiencing food insecurity, mental health challenges, social isolation, and other stressors.

The volunteers who are being honored this year have each contributed to the Jewish community and JFS in their own unique way. Serving clients in the food pantry, working as a JFS Board Member, providing holiday programs to older adults in their residences, and supporting our youth are just a few of the ways these volunteers have enriched our agency. The truth is that JFS could not provide the breadth and depth of programming that we do if we did not have such amazing volunteers serving every aspect of our operation.

Today’s beautiful event happened because of our volunteer Chairperson Vikki Dunn’s organization and dedication, the entire JFS fundraising committee, and our talented JFS staff and board who demonstrate daily that collaboration is the key to our success.

Rabbi Nachman of Breslove said, “Let the good in me connect with the good in others, until the world is transferred through the compelling power of love.” The work of JFS is enriched by the efforts of our volunteers who express their love of the agency through the compassionate care they provide to JFS. This “love” comes across to clients who can feel validated and comforted by our dedication. During these challenging times, we can celebrate these volunteers who make a difference at JFS and throughout our community.

Cheers,

Audrey Nolte
President

Debbie Zoller
Executive Director

With appreciation to Jewish Family Service, its dedicated staff, and stellar volunteers for the excellent work they do making a positive difference in the lives of people in our community.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR CHAIR

Dear Friends,

I can't believe it is time to write these words; I still feel the glow and sense of shared accomplishment from last year's fundraiser. But here we are, celebrating another wonderful group of honorees. And here we are paying tribute to an agency that has made such an impact in the lives of so many in our community.

Each of the honorees gives so much of themselves; each of them felt they didn't deserve the honor, but I am here to say they did. These are the unsung heroes who make the world a better place and who empower Jewish Family Service to make our small corner of the world, the Lehigh Valley, a better place,

I cannot thank the Cheers committee and the staff at JFS enough for all their hard work. Thank you to Tavia Minich, who did all the marketing, kept track of all the RSVPs, and was so instrumental in every aspect of the brunch, and to Stephanie Smartschan who filmed and edited the honoree videos and who is the creative genius behind our digital ad book.

Thank you to two special women: Debbie Zoller, JFS executive director, who attended every meeting, made all sorts of suggestions, helped smooth out any rough spots and guided us in her gentle but firm way; and Audrey Nolte, president of the JFS board, who brings so much institutional memory, organization and passion for the agency. Her advice was always wise and welcomed.

And lastly, thank you to the Lehigh Valley community, both Jewish and non-Jewish alike, for all your support. JFS could not do the work it is doing without you. It is often said that the measure of a community is how it treats the most vulnerable among us. I believe that we are measuring up.

Thank you again for the privilege of chairing this fundraiser.

Vikki Dunn
Chair, Cheers for Volunteers

COMMUNITY FOOD PANTRY

The Community Food Pantry serves households struggling with food insecurity, using a choice model that provides both food and personal care items. The Food Pantry is open to individuals and families living in the 18104 zip code as well as Jewish community members in the Lehigh Valley.

OLDER ADULT SERVICES

Jewish Family Service offers case management services to clients over the age of 65 living in Lehigh and Northampton Counties. In addition, JFS offers psychoeducational support groups for individuals with disabilities and their family members.

COUNSELING

Licensed clinical social workers at Jewish Family Service provide a full range of counseling services to individuals, couples, families, and groups of all religions and backgrounds. Through a strength-based model, clients develop strategies to cope with change, loss, or the stresses of everyday life. CLARA BERGSTEIN

Jewish Family Service

“The most rewarding thing for me is to be able to give back to the community, to make a difference especially with people who may be less fortunate.”

Clara Bergstein was born in Montgomery County, PA, and moved to the Lehigh Valley early in her career, working in the women’s apparel manufacturing and retail industry. It was in this field that she met her husband, David. The two built a blended family with four children: Scott, Ally, Stacy, and Matthew. Over the years, their family has grown to include four beloved grandchildren. For over 30 years, Clara and David were active members of KI. They are also two of the six founders of Tikvah House, a residence for Jewish adults with disabilities, and Clara played a key role in developing a partnership between Tikvah House and JFS. Clara actively volunteers at the JFS Community Food Pantry, helps prepare lunches for a local soup kitchen and has sold Israeli jewelry to support the Jewish Federation, JFS, and JDS. Professionally, Clara is a full-time Realtor. She is politically active and, in her free time, enjoys visiting family in California, playing Mahjong and Canasta, and golfing whenever the weather — and her schedule — allow.

LARRY CENTER

Congregation Brith Sholom

Larry Center was born, raised, and educated in Philadelphia. After attending Central High School, Drexel University, and Temple Law School, Larry moved with his wife and then-infant daughter to the Lehigh Valley as a practicing real estate and estate lawyer from 1971-2017. The family joined Brith Sholom shortly thereafter, and his involvement eventually led to serving on the Board of Trustees, then as vice president and president. He was active at the JDS while all three of his children were students, has served on the board of the Jewish Federation, and currently serves on the Federation’s endowment fund finance committee. Larry’s professional retirement led to his current volunteer involvement at JFS’s food pantry as often as possible. As a retired army judge advocate, he provides legal assistance for military retirees at Tobyhanna Army Depot, and prepares tax returns for fellow retirees through the AARP Foundation. When not busy serving the community, Larry enjoys adult education classes at the JCC, spending time with his kids and four grandsons, walking/hiking and riding his bike.

JANE COHEN

Congregation Keneseth Israel

“In 2016 I found out I had Stage 4 cancer, which made me acutely aware of my time and how I wanted to spend my time. It became very important to me that I was mindful and I was using my life so that it counted.”

Jane Cohen was born in New York City and was raised as a third-generation Allentonian. While raising two sons alongside her husband, she obtained a master’s in computer science and retired from her career in project management in 2016. She serves as a friendly visitor to Keneseth Israel members, performs monthly Shabbat services at Country Meadows on behalf of Jewish Family Service and volunteers for Turning Point of the Lehigh Valley twice a week, in addition to spending as much family time as possible with her 4th and 5th generation Allentonian children and grandchildren.

SANDI FINE

Jewish Community Center

“I saw how the Lehigh Valley is so unique and special from anywhere else. Part of it is how they embrace Tikkun Olam and pay it forward.”

Sandi Fine was born in Philadelphia but moved to the Lehigh Valley in 8th grade. Her Jewish upbringing included a conservative affiliation, membership in BBYO and Hillel, as well as attending Jewish summer camp. She went to Muhlenberg College and Penn State University, and moved back home after marrying her high school sweetheart to raise their four children. Sandi has long been active at the Jewish Community Center, whether as parent, community member or board member. She lends her green thumb to Temple Beth El's Community Garden Center, which donates produce to the JFS Food Pantry. She also sits on Temple Beth El's Sisterhood presidium, and delivers challah and juice to older Jewish adults via the Shabbat Angels program.

“We, as Jews, need to take care of each other because no one else is going to take care of us.”

Beth Kozinn has been active throughout the Lehigh Valley for decades. Beth was born in Brooklyn, NY, and raised in Miami, FL. While obtaining a master’s degree in early childhood development in New York City, she met her spouse and moved to the Lehigh Valley to start their family and careers. Beth has volunteered in various roles at Federation since 1982, and has served on committees and boards at the Jewish Day School, Hadassah and Jewish Family Service. Beth is a proud mother of three adults and grandmother of seven grandsons.

Chabad of the Lehigh Valley

“You get connected to the people who are so appreciative. It feels like you’re giving back a little. And it’s so easy! It doesn’t require a lot of mental effort. I find this time at JFS very interesting and rewarding.”

Roberta Kritzer was born in Brooklyn and arrived in the Lehigh Valley as a young wife and mother. In short order, she became a social worker at the Carbon Lehigh Intermediate Unit. She finished her professional career as a guidance counselor in the Whitehall Coplay School District. Since retirement, Roberta finds enjoyment in volunteering at Jewish Family Service’s food pantry and lifelong learning at Chabad Lubavitch of the Lehigh Valley. Larry Levitt was born in the Bronx, NY, and attended Queens College followed by Weill Cornell Medicine in NYC. He was recruited to the Lehigh Valley as a neurologist at the start of his career. After arrival, Larry, and his wife Eva (z”l) made their mark on the community in myriad ways. He founded the Neurology Division at Lehigh Valley Hospital, was a founding member of the Jewish Federation’s Maimonides Society, and, with Eva and two other couples, founded Tikvah House, a group home for Jewish handicapped adults. Larry was a founding trustee of the Dorothy Rider Pool Healthcare Trust and served on the trust for 30 years. He is a member of Congregation Sons of Israel, has served on the Jewish Federation board, and continues on the Federation’s Endowment Investment Committee. Congregation Bnai Shalom

“What I find rewarding is that I can do work that I’ve wanted to do, that’s important to me. Volunteering reminds me of that mitzvah to heal the world.”

Howard Nathanson is a Brooklyn-born, Jersey-raised resident of Easton since 2003. He has been married for 32 years and has one daughter. He retired from a career at AT&T in 2019 where he developed internal applications, managed complex projects, and led mentoring programs for at-risk students. He is the vice president of Bnai Shalom, where he also serves as chair of the Ritual Committee. Howard is also a board member and volunteer at Jewish Family Service, providing Jewish holiday presentations at residential facilities for older adults throughout the Valley. PHYLLIS PERKIN

Temple Beth El

“I think it’s really important, because we do have such a vibrant Jewish community, that everyone participates in order to continue the quality of the activities that are available.”

Phyllis Perkin has called the Lehigh Valley home for over 50 years. It is the place where she and her husband raised their two children, and where her Jewish life of learning and volunteering took root. Phyllis got involved at Jewish Family Service in the 1980s when Beth Tikvah strove to provide care and community for aging Jewish older adults. Her passion segued into serving on the Board of Trustees, the Older Adult Task Force, co-chair of fundraising, and assisting the community through Benefits CheckUp. Phyllis is a former board member at Temple Beth El, serves on the ritual and service committee, and volunteers at religious school. Phyllis can be found at morning minyan services at TBE and taking adult Jewish education courses at the JCC or other local rabbinical offerings.

MARSHA TIMMERMAN

Congregation Am Haskalah

“There needs to be a helping hand, and if I have the resources and the time to do that, I would be wrong not to.”

NYC native Marsha (Wender) Timmerman moved to the Lehigh Valley over 50 years ago. Her professional career was varied and ever changing. She started doing water chemistry, then microbiology, then biochemistry, then entrepreneurship, then invention, then academia and finally angel investing. As part of her career, she started two companies and was a founding scientist in a third. Her professional experiences, along with raising a family which includes a member with a learning disability, fueled Marsha’s creative and entrepreneurial drive to support businesses and programs that feature accessibility and inclusion for all. She has been instrumental in growing Jewish Family Service’s disability programming throughout the Valley, and supports Adaptations, a social community for adults based in New York City. Marsha is a member and volunteer at Congregation Am Haskalah, and serves on the board of Reconstructing Judaism. She is an avid lifelong learner, and relaxes by tending to her four llamas and flock of chickens, dog, cats, and birds on her farmland in Emmaus.

Pirkei Avot (1:2) The world stands on three things:
Torah, Service, and Lovingkindness.

Congregation Sons of Israel honors Larry Levitt who has devoted his life to lovingkindness and the assistance to others and his community. His support in assisting JFS and building the Tikvah House are a true inspiration for us all. Larry truly stands as one of the pillars holding the world together.
